SUNDAY LAW PASSES OVER CARTER'S VETO

(By Wireless to THE TRIBUNE.)

BOTH HOUSE AND SENATE
OVERRIDE GOVERNOR'S ACTION

Honolulu, March 29.—The Governor today vetoed the Quinn Sunday bill, providing for a more liberal Sabbath, and the House promptly passed the bill over the veto.

Honolulu, March 31.—The Senate passed the Sunday law over the Governor's veto.

[In refusing to sign the Quinn Sunday bill, Governor Carter sought to secure a more perfect measure, although carrying out the same idea. In returning the bill to the Legislature the Governor said:

"Leaving all religious aspects out of the question, I do not believe there has been sufficient consideration of the present Sunday law, nor of this proposed act. There is much misapprehension in regard to the present law, which is not confined exclusively to members of the Legislature; and there is a general impression that if the present law were enforced, restaurants and coffee shops would be closed, street cars stopped and all private games and amusements prohibited.

"An examination of the statutes on this subject in twenty different States shows that our present law is not as 'blue' as pictured, nor is it strict, bigoted or antiquated. As a rule, the New England States prohibit all recreation on Sunday, as well as hunting and fishing. The Southern States do not restrict recreation, but join those of New England in prohibiting hunting and fishing; while such States as Ohio and Indiana make their restrictions apply to persons over fourteen years of age.

"It must be admitted by all that the present law regulating the observance of the Sabbath could undoubtedly be amended to advantage. The ideal which should be aimed at is to provide a day of rest, recreation and religious worship, and so draft a law that each person would be free to observe the day in any way that does not interfere with the observance of it by others.

"The bill is not clear in its expression. After a careful study, I am forced to the opinion that the present law, with its defects, is better and can be more readily enforced than this bill in its present shape."

The vote in the House overriding the veto was as follows:

Ayes—Andrade, Aylett, Coelho, Copp, Cox, Fernandez, Greenwell, Haia, Harris, Kalawala, Kaleipu, Long, Mahelona, Pali, Quinn, Rice, Sheldon, Shipman, Smith, Waterhouse, Knudsen—27. Noes—Broad, Kalino, Kaniho, Lewis, Lilikalani, Mahiko, Nakuina—7.

The vote in the Senate was as follows:

Ayes—Achil, Bishop, Brown, Dowsett, Gandall, Hewitt, Isenberg, Kalama, Lane, McCandless and Woods—11. Noes—Dickey, Paris and Wilcox—3.]

Booked for Kinau.

Honolulu, April 3.—The following passengers were booked for the Kinau up to noon today: J. H. Rood, Miss B. Howe, Captain M. A. Madsen, E. P. Low, W. Zuieg, Mr. Hayden, Mr. Brenum, Francis Gay and wife, F. J. Hare, Miss Lerney, George L. Desha, wife and two children, Aubrey Robertson and wife, Miss M. Schmidt, Miss A. Renter, Miss B. Zuieg, Miss Clara Zuieg, W. Norris and wife, George Lycurgus, H. G. Boyant, Mr. Donoghue, D. B. Maconachie, wife and child, Mr. Milliken, A. W. Walker and wife, Masters Robinson (2), W. L. Bryant and wife.

To Divide Church and State.

St. Petersburg, Russia, April 1.—The movement for the separation of church and state is meeting with favor among the clergy.

Workmen Are Dispersed.

St. Petersburg, Russia, April 1.—An assemblage of workmen, demanding the release of the strike leaders, became riotous and were dispersed by the police.

France and Germany at Loggerheads.

London, April 1.—The Kaiser's visit to Morocco is regarded as a political demonstration. It is reported that the German ruler declared that his empire must have equal rights guaranteed by the sovereignty of Morocco.

Paris, April 1.—Premier Delcasse, in a speech in the Senate, declared that France will not change her policy in Morocco despite resistance in interested quarters.

Special Session of Congress.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—It is stated that a special session of Congress is likely to be called on October 16th.

Conservatives Are Scored.

London, England, March 29.—The Commons voted yesterday to censure Balfour's fiscal policy, 254 to 2. The ministerialists did not vote.

Beef Trust Man Indicted.

Chicago, Ill., March 29.—The Grand Jury investigating the beef trust has indicted T. J. Connors, superintendent of Armour's packing house, for interfering with witnesses.

Madam Pele Takes a Rest.

On Friday the fire in the pit of Kilaua began to subside, and on Saturday no glow was visible whatever. There are explosions of gas at intervals and a steady volume of steam and sulphur vapor rises from the cone where the former activity occurred. D. Lycurgus, the manager of the Volcano House, who has become an expert on volcanoes, asserts that the cessation of activity is only temporary, and will be followed by a larger demonstration than has ever been witnessed before. Five 10,000 gallon water tanks have been constructed, with a capacity of a year's water supply, and J. M. Cameron is installing a complete system of plumbing.

COUNTY BILL PASSES SENATE WITH MANY AMENDMENTS

(By Wireless to THE TRIBUNE.)

Honolulu, March 31.—The Senate today, on third reading, passed the County bill, with many amendments.

[Under the rules, the bill will now be referred to a conference committee consisting of three or more members from the House and Senate, who will reconcile the differences existing in the respective measures passed by the two houses. As the bill passed the House, two counties are provided for Hawaii, and the Senate bill provides for one county.]

Largest Number of Immigrants.

New York, April 1.—The immigration this year is unprecedented. The influx for March at this port was 97,000.

China Making Preparations.

London, England, March 31.—China proposes reorganizing her army and recreating her navy so as to be able to defy Russia within ten years.

Will Demand An Indemnity.

London, England, March 31.—Minister Takahashi declares that as the present war will cost Japan $550,000,000 it is not likely that she will waive an indemnity. She will certainly demand her expenses. The Russian assumption that a prolongation of the war would deplete Japan's resources is unfounded, as the country is making remarkable progress.

Japanese Control Manchuria.

Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, March 30.—The Japanese have assumed the administration of Manchuria. They have three lines of railway communicating with Seoul and fresh Japanese troops are arriving.

Will Continue War.

St. Petersburg, Russia, March 30.—It is understood that the Imperial Commission has decided to continue the war.

Tokio, Japan, March 31.—Peace rumors will not affect the attitude of the Government. The newspapers are urging a vigorous prosecution of the war.

Czar Is Mentally Upset.

Paris, March 29.—There is an unconfirmed report here that the Czar has attempted suicide and is wounded in the hand.

Japan Wants No Interference.

Washington, March 29.—Neutral powers have been warned that Japan will deal direct with St. Petersburg, avoiding an international conference. France is diligently trying to end the war and has been confidentially negotiating with the Czar for the past six weeks.

Inter-Island Will Absorb Wilders.

Honolulu, March 30.—At the adjourned annual meeting held yesterday the Inter-Island Steamship Company voted to buy out the Wilder Company and consolidate the two steamship lines, with capital stock at a million and a half.

[This is the same proposition which has been before the two companies for some time, since the control of the Wilder S. S. Co. passed into the hands of the principal stockholders of the other company by the purchase of the stock of the S. G. Wilder Estate. A committee on merger was appointed and the action taken is the result of their report. The present capital of the Inter-Island Company is $600,000. Half of the new capitalization will be credited to the shareholders of the Wilder Company, and the remaining half assumed by the stockholders of the Inter-Island. By the merger the Inter-Island Company will have $160,000 additional assets and a reserve fund of $100,000. It is reported that the price to be paid for the Wilder stock is $100 per share. It is rumored that President Kennedy of the Inter-Island will be general manager of the amalgamated company and C. L. Wight assistant manager. No change will be made in the freight rates, although there is likely to be a change in steamer schedules, giving to the public a better passenger, freight and mail service.]

Needs a House Cleaning.

Honolulu, March 30.—Albert F. Judd, appointed special commissioner to investigate the Department of Education, makes a damaging report to Governor Carter, declaring Superintendent Atkinson to be incompetent, Dr. Rodgers as too old, and Miss Rose Davidson's irregularities demanding a judicial investigation.

[The entire administration of the Department of Education is sharply criticized. It was shown that Miss Davidson was in the habit of accepting I. O. U's from employees of the department, making out vouchers for labor for them and having these vouchers endorsed over to her. From January 1, 1904, to January 31, 1905, there has been expended in Miss Davidson's district, under her supervision as school agent, the sum of $3,336.89 for repairs, and $1,762.94 for furniture and fixtures. All contracts were verbal between Miss Davidson and the employees, no record being kept. Superintendent Atkinson had no knowledge of the school book fund, when it was shown that Wall, Nichols & Co. were indebted to the department to the extent of $167.50, and the Hawaiian News Co. for $187.00. While not charging forgery of a signature, a comparison of the endorsement of voucher No. 8475, assigned by D. Kalimahana to Miss Davidson, with other endorsements on other vouchers purporting to have been made by D. Kalimahana, leads to the conclusion that the signature in question was not written by Kalimahana. The department had no definite knowledge of the lands held by it or under lease. Unrecorded leases and deeds were found in the safe, of which there was no record in the office. Three school inspectors have been appointed without authority to inspect schools, when the law requires Superintendent Atkinson to make such visits. The report recommends the reorganization of the department. With reference to Dr. Rodgers, it is suggested that a more energetic man could be found to take his place. Atkinson lacks business methods or knowledge of his department. With reference to the irregularities of Miss Davidson, the report suggests that any further investigation into the misapplication of funds be conducted by the Attorney-General.]
